Chapter 1 by Hannah

I took a deep breath as I walked through the door. The only thing I could think about was that it was a brand new school, with all new people, which meant no one knew about "the incident". My mom always told me "things happen all the time and that people die everyday". But if you're the only one left alive and holding a knife. Things are not gonna go your way. Ever since the incident no one wanted to be around me. If they knew the truth then they would know it wasn't my fault. I didn't kill them.
